

Thu, 9 Jun 2016 at 09:00

Investing in Early Potential - the first 1001 days

Central Hall Westminster, London, United Kingdom

Get your early bird rate by 15th February and promotional opportunities booked for your organisation

Parent Infant Partnership (PIP) UK is proud to be hosting its inaugural conference in Westminster on 9th June 2016 as part of a national calendar of events for Infant Mental Health Week 6-10 June. The first National Infant Mental Health Awards in the UK will be launched at this conference.

In attendance for this high profile event will be politicians, philanthropists, experts by lived experience, commissioners, directors of public health, think tanks and multi-disciplinary professionals from across health, education and social care.

A number of invited Secretary of States, Ministers and parliamentarians will be speaking and addressing the opportunities to invest in the first 1001 days of a child's life as part of the vision for social renewal and social justice in our local communities.

This conference will showcase the work of the charity PIP UK that is developing specialist therapeutic support for vulnerable infants, toddlers and their families across the UK, as well as some of the best practise in the field of innovative and evidence based work in the first 1001 days of a child's life including PIP UK Trustee Chris Cuthbert (Better Start), George Hosking, OBE (Pioneer Communities), Dr Alain Gregoire (MMHA), Professor Jane Barlow (Warwick University) among other pioneers and innovators seeking to enable upstream solutions to society's challenges.

To book an early bird ticket before the 15th February or to order one of the amazing promotional packages we have on offer to showcase your organisations first 1001 days' work follow the link:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/investing-in-early-potential-the-first-1001-days-tickets-20370077450>

For further information, get in touch with Clair Rees – Executive Director PIP UK:
clair.rees@pipuk.org.uk